

Change Division 2009 Awards

Outstanding Change Book Award

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009

Sponsored by: AECT's Systemic Change Division

Books nominated must bear a copyright date of 2008, 2009, or 2010 and should be relevant to the field of systemic change, diffusion of innovations, systems theory or change management. Anyone may submit a nomination.

The nomination procedure is outlined below:

1. Nominations will be by signed letter. Electronic submissions of letters are appropriate. You may include a short statement providing your rationale for nominating the book.
2. Complete bibliographic information should be included IN YOUR LETTER OF NOMINATION: author, name of book, where published and by whom, date of publication, and ISBN number if known.
3. You may provide as enclosures: copies of reviews, promotional literature, or other informational materials, which help to describe the nature and quality of the book.

Two copies of the nominated book, and all of the above material, should be sent to:

Ali Carr-Chellman
Professor
College of Education, Learning and Performance Systems
Penn State University
307 Keller Bldg.
University Park, PA 16802
e-mail: aac3@psu.edu

Deadline:

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009.

Outstanding Change Journal Article Award

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009

Sponsored by: AECT's Systemic Change Division

Articles nominated must have been published no earlier than 2008 in a regularly published journal, and should be relevant to the broad field of Systemic Change, special issues of a journal are eligible. Anyone may submit a nomination.

The nomination procedure is outlined below:

- * Nominations will be by signed letter or email. Self-nominations are welcomed. If you desire, you may include a short statement providing your rationale for the nomination.

- * A complete bibliographic citation should be included in the letter.

Send one copy of the nominating letter, and one PDF electronic copy of the published article to:

Ali Carr-Chellman
Professor
College of Education, Learning and Performance Systems
Penn State University
307 Keller Bldg.
University Park, PA 16802
e-mail: aac3@psu.edu

Deadline:

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009.

Distinguished Service to the Systemic Change Division

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009

Sponsored by: AECT's Systemic Change Division

The Change Division's Distinguished Service Award is presented to an individual for outstanding service to the Change Division. Anyone may submit a nomination.

Qualifications:

- * The nominee needs to be a member of the Change Division of AECT.

Disqualifications:

- * Nominee may not be a past winner of this award.
- * Nominee may not be currently serving as a member of the Change Division Awards Committee.

Note: The award may be given posthumously.

Procedure:

The nomination procedure is outlined below:

- * Nominations will be by signed letter or email. Self-nominations are welcomed. All nominations must include a short (not more than 500 words) statement providing the rationale for the nomination.

Ali Carr-Chellman
Professor
College of Education, Learning and Performance Systems
Penn State University
307 Keller Bldg.
University Park, PA 16802
e-mail: aac3@psu.edu

Deadline:

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009.

The Charles M. Reigeluth Emerging Researcher Award

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009

Sponsored by: AECT's Systemic Change Division

The Change Division seeks to recognize early career scholars whose work is emerging as important to the field of systemic change, diffusion of innovations, systems theory or change management. The Emergent Researcher Award is presented to the scholar who is less than 5 years into a full-time academic position, or is still in graduate school. This award is based on the body of work to that point.

. Anyone may submit a nomination.

Qualifications:

* The nominee needs to be a member of the Change Division of AECT and less than 5 years into a full-time academic position, or still in graduate studies.

Disqualifications:

* Nominee may not be a past winner of this award.

* Nominee may not have occupied a full-time academic post for more than 5 years.

* Nominee may not be currently serving as a member of the Change Division Awards Committee.

Procedure:

The nomination procedure is outlined below:

* Nominations will be by signed letter or email. Self-nominations are welcomed. All nominations must include a complete vita for the nominee as well as a short (not more than 500 words) statement providing the rationale for the nomination.

Ali Carr-Chellman
Professor
College of Education, Learning and Performance Systems
Penn State University
307 Keller Bldg.
University Park, PA 16802
e-mail: aac3@psu.edu

Deadline:

Deadline for submission is September 15th, 2009.

Charlie Reigeluth has a B.A. in Economics from Harvard University and a Ph.D. in Instructional Psychology from Brigham Young University. He taught high school science for three years. He has been a Professor in the Instructional Systems Technology Department at Indiana University since 1988, and was chairman of the department for three years. He co-founded the Division for Systemic Change in AECT and founded the Restructuring Support Service at Indiana University. He has worked with several school districts to facilitate their systemic change efforts. He served on the Indiana Department of Education Restructuring Task Force.